PETERSBURG, Sept. 15. O. S.

A LETTER from Field Marſhal Count Munich to the Duke of Courland, dated from the Camp beyond the Pruth, the 29th Auguſt, O. S.

The happy Succeſſes I am going to relate muſt be wholly aſcribed to the Bleſſing of Almighty God, to whom we have infinite Reaſon to give the humbleſt Thanks. It muſt be acknowledg'd, that his Hand has guided all the Enterprizes of her Majeſty our moſt gracious Empreſs. The Pruth ſhall be no longer named by Ruſſians with Execration, but with Benediction, as opening the Way to a ſpeedy and honourable Peace.

To draw in one Campaign, from the Don and the Donetx, from the Lines in the Ukraine, and from ſeveral Provinces far diſtant from the Dnieper, an Army to meet together near Kiow; to paſs with it the Dnieper, which had overflow'd in an extraordinary Manner a German Mile in Breadth; to march from the Frontiers of Ruſſia to thoſe of Moldavia, croſs Poland, without taking there the leaſt Thing for our Carriages, or for Proviſions; to paſs the Bog, which the Enemy threatned to diſpute with us; to paſs even the Dnieſter without any Obſtacle, though the Enemy were there with all their Forces; to make our Way over the Mountains of Choczim, and through the Difficult Defile near Tzotra-Ulza; to ſend Parties in Sight as one may ſay of the Enemy to drive together thouſands of Horſes, Cattle, and Sheep in Moldavia, and bring them to that Side of the Pruth where we than lay; conſequently to furniſh the Army with what was wanting for our Carriages, and with Proviſions out of the Enemies Country, without the Loſs of one Man; to repel with viſible great Loſs to the Enemy all the Attacks of the Turks and Tartars, to beat out of a fortified Camp the Seraſkier Sultan with all his Hoards of Tartars, as alſo Koltſchack Baſha, with his Serdengetſies, or Adventurers, who profeſs neither to give nor take Quarter, and with his Lipkanes; laſtly, to attack the Seraſkier Wely Baſhaw, who had the Command of the Enemies whole Army, amounting to 90000 Men, by whom we were ſurrounded on all Sides, and to give him a total Defeat; to make a Booty in his fortified Camp of all the Tents and Baggage, of 6 Mortars and 42 Cannon of Braſs, and all the Ammunition and Proviſion, and to have but 70 Men on our Side killed or wounded; to take the important Fortreſs of Choczim, having for its Defence 157 Braſs Cannon, with ſtores anſwerable; to make Priſoners of War a Baſhaw of Three Tails and his Garriſon, without lighting one Match; to purſue the Enemy to the Pruth, to paſs that River with the Army, to build Forts on each Side of it to fix a Footing in the midſt of the Enemies Country, to chaſe the Hoſpodar of Moldavia from one End of it to the other, and make him fly to the other ſide of the Danube; to levy Contributions and take Proviſions from the Enemy; to ſee our Army without one ſick Perſon in it, in full Proſperity and Abundance: All this, I ſay, could not have happened, without being conducted and ſupported by the Hand of Almighty God. Moſt of theſe Events are of ſuch a nature, that thoſe who were not preſent at them may call many Particulars in Doubt, and among others this, that the Janiſſaries approaching fiercely to make an Attack, were ſuddenly ſtopt by ſo vigorous a Fire, that they had not Time to diſcharge their Pieces or to handle their Sabres: The Fright of the Enemy was ſuch, that a great Number of them were found drowned three Days after the Action ſome Miles below the Station our Army was in, and the greateſt Part of them fled as far as the Danube, without daring to caſt a Look behind them. On the other hand, never did Army expreſs more Ardour to fight, than ours. Deputations and Letters of Congratulation from Poland have come to us one after another: And with the further Help of God, we cannot doubt of a very happy Iſſue of the Campaign.

London, Octo. 11. They write from Genoa, that the King of the Two Sicilies doth not obſerve ſo ſtrict a Neutrality as he declared he would, there being ſeveral Privateers fitting out in his Ports, they having received blank Letters of Marque from Madrid, as well as at Malta, and that they ſoon expect Numbers of them at Sea under Spaniſh Colours. A Privateer of 24 Guns is ready to ſail from Naples.

Octo. 31 It's remark'd, That there was not one French Suit worn at Court on the Birth Night.

Sunday Noon an Expreſs arriv'd at the Admiralty, with advice, that Admiral Haddock had taken a Spaniſh Ship, of 60 Guns, call'd the San Joſeph, richly laden; and had ſent her under the Command of his Lieutenant Thomſon, and under Convoy of the Cheſter, to Portſmouth, where ſhe is ſafe arriv'd. Her Cargo conſiſts of 10919 Panequs of Cocoa Nuts, 102398 Pounds of Verenas Tobacco, 30,000 Pieces of Eight, and many valuable Goods not regiſtred, computed to be worth 150,000 l. Sterling.

Capt. Ambroſe took 23 Cheſts of Silver, out of a Genoeſe

Genoeſe Ship, conſigned to Perſons at Cadiz, ſuppoſed to be Part of the Aſſogue Ships Cargo. He allow'd the Captain of her his Freight, and gave him a Receipt in full, to carry to the Merchants in Cadiz, according to his Bills of Lading.

Letters from Portſmouth ſay, there are 4 Men of War, 2 Bomb Ketches, and 2 Fire-ſhips, order'd to ſail the firſt fair Wind, for Jamaica.

Nov. 1. Yeſterday his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle receiv'd an Account, That Part of Admiral Haddock's Squadron had taken another Ship from Caraccas, of about 400 Tons, and 36 Guns; her Cargo worth 100,000 l. Sterling, carried into Gibraltar: And that they were in Hopes of a rich Ship from Buenos Ayres. The News of the Loſs of theſe 2 Ships has reach'd Cadiz: and they ſay their Cargoes, regiſter'd and not regiſter'd, amount to 1,000,000 Pieces of Eight; and that they were deceiv'd by a Veſſel from Cork, who told them the Difference between England and Spain was made up, and that they might venture to Cadiz with Safety. Sir Chaloner Ogle is arriv'd at Gibraltar.

The Spaniſh Ship San Joſeph, before mention'd, is to be refitted, and mounted with 60 Guns, for the King's Service; and the Command of her is given to Lieutenant Thomſon.

Some of our Ships have been taken in the Mediterranean, by Spaniſh Veſſels, and French Veſſels carrying Spaniſh Colours.

Inſurance on Ships and Goods, is conſiderably riſen.

'Tis reported, the King of Portugal hath ſtopt Two Spaniſh Ships, at Liſbon, 'till Capt. White's Ship is reſtored, who was taken under his Cannon.

It's ſtrongly reported, that Admiral Haddock had taken another Ship, richly laden, from Buenos Ayres.

Extraordinary Preparations of War, are making in this Kingdom; exceeding even thoſe in the laſt War: And there is ſo much reaſon to believe the French will join with the Spaniards in the War, that it's ſcarce doubted of.

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan. 12. On Saturday laſt the Reverend Mr. GEO. WHITEFIELD arrived here by Land from Philadelphia, having preach'd at ſundry Places as he paſs'd thro' Pennſylvania, Maryland, Virginia and North-Carolina; on Sunday and Monday he preach'd here to large Auditories, and on Tueſday went by Water to Georgia.

Jan. 19. By Capt. John Murray, who arrived on Saturday laſt from Providence, we are inform'd that Capt. Charles Hall in the Sloop Virgin Queen, belonging to Rhode-Iſland, and who fitted out there, had taken and brought into Providence, a Spaniſh Canoe with Twenty Thouſand Pieces of Eight on board. The ſaid Capt. Murray informs, that Capt. Hall ſail'd again on another Cruiſe, and took and carried in there alſo, a rich Spaniſh Sloop, and then ſail'd again on a third Cruiſe three Days before the ſaid Murray left Providence; he alſo informs, that he met in his Voyage the two Privateers fitted out at Georgia, belonging to Caleb Davis.

The ſaid Murray will fit out with a Letter of Marque as ſoon as he arrives at Providence again.

We hear from Savannah in Georgia, that the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD arrived ſafely there on the 11th Day of January laſt.

From whence we hear alſo, that he has ſet 30 Men to Work upon a Tract of Land 8 Miles to the Southward (near the Iſland of Providence) where the Orphan Houſe is to be built with all poſſible Expedition; mean while he has taken moſt of the Orphans into a large Houſe he has hired for that Purpoſe at Savannah.

He has ſent his Journal, together with a Letter concerning Archbiſhop Tillotſon, and another concerning the Negroes, to be printed at London and Philadelphia.

'Tis confidently reported, that there is advice from Georgia, that the Chickeſaw Indians have taken the two principal Forts belonging to St. Auguſtine, together with ſeveral Spaniards Priſoners.

Laſt Week ſail'd on a Cruiſe his Majeſty's Sloop the Spence.

And on Monday laſt arrived here from a Cruiſe, his Majeſty's Ship the Flamborough under the Command of Capt. Pierce.

As did alſo his Majeſty's Ship the Tartar, under Command of Capt. Townſhend.

Laſt Week arrived here a Spaniſh Prize Sloop, taken off Hiſpaniola by the Sloop Sea-Nymph, under the Command of Capt. Joſeph Prew, who fitted out from this Place ſome time ago; her Cargo chiefly conſiſts in Sugar, but no Priſoners: There was in Company with the ſaid Sloop, another very rich Spaniſh Veſſel, which Capt. Prew (for want of Hands) could not take, he having but few.

Williamſburg, Jan. 25. We are inform'd by Capt. Rome, of the Brigantine Lawrie, bound from Antigua to Philadelphia, who put into Hampton, by bad Weather, That Capt. Bayard, in a Privateer of 6 Guns, and 22 Men, belonging to New-York, or Rhode-Iſland, had taken in September laſt, a Spaniſh Ship, and Sloop, from the Cape de Verd Iſlands, computed to be worth 10,000 l. and carry'd them into Antigua.

The Spaniards made no Defence for themſelves; when the Sloops People boarded the Ship, the Spaniards quitted her, having firſt cut her Cable, that ſhe might drive aſhore; but the Hands being briſk, towed her out with their Boat. There was in the Road, a French Eaſt India Man, and a Dutch Eaſt India Man, who ſtaid there three Days to protect the Spaniards. The Spaniards had put 80,000 Pieces of Eight on board the French Eaſt India Man for Safety; but the India Men both ſail'd ſoon after, and left the poor Spaniards to the Mercy of the Privateer, who took both Veſſels in a few Hours after. In one of theſe Prizes, they found a ſolid Silver Table two Feet high, two Sets of Gold Candleſticks, a Gold Baſon, and ſeveral other Veſſels of Gold, which were a complete Set of Church Plate, Value about 2000 l. Sterling.

PHILADELPHIA.

We hear from Antigua, that Capt. Windham, in the Greenwich, with 3 Fireſhips, 2 Bomb-Ketches, and under his Convoy 4 Merchant Ships, paſs'd by that Iſland for Jamaica; He left England the 2d of November, and then it was affirm'd, that the Czarina and Ottoman Porte were upon a Treaty of Peace, by the Meditation of England. That it was expected we ſhould have greater Privileges in our Turky Trade than ever; and that a ſplendid Embaſſy was preparing at the Porte for Great-Britain.

It's

It's ſaid a Meſſage was ſent by the Czarina to the French King, that if he interfer'd in the Quarrel between England and Spain, ſhe had 50000 Men at the King of England's Service on a Moment's Warning, which produced an immediate Anſwer to a Complaint of our Miniſters made ſome time before, but not till then taken Notice of, viz. that Numbers of French Ships and Men were privateering on the Britiſh Trade and Navigation, under Spaniſh Commiſſions. The King of France declar'd it was without the Approbation of his Court, and that when any ſuch were taken, they might be treated as Pirates. It's ſuppos'd Admiral Vernon with his Squadron is to make an Attempt on the Havanna, as ſoon as he is join'd by the Fire-Ships and Bomb Ketches.

A Declaration of War againſt France was carried in the Negative but by one Voice only, in the King's Council.

We hear that Capt. Galt, in a Snow belonging to this Place, was taken going into Liſbon, by a Spaniſh Row Boat with 12 Men. He had loſt his Maſts, and had no Guns on board. They tow'd him into Vigo. The Captain was ſhot through the Shoulder.
